CONSENT OF DEFENDANTS CRAIG DEMIZIO AND CD MANAGEMENT, INC.

1. Defendants Craig DeMizio ("C. DeMizio") and CD Management, Inc. ("CD Management"), being fully apprised of their rights, having had the opportunity to confer with legal counsel, having read and understood the terms of the annexed Final Consent Judgment Of Permanent Injunction And Other Relief As To Defendants Craig DeMizio and CD Management, Inc. ("Final Judgment"), appear and admit to the jurisdiction of this Court over them and over the subject matter of this action, waive the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, without further notice, trial or argument, and without admitting or denying the allegations of the Complaint filed by plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), except as to jurisdiction, which are admitted, hereby consent to the entry of the annexed Final Judgment.

2. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management agree that this Consent Of Defendants Craig DeMizio and CD Management, Inc. ("Consent") shall be incorporated by reference in and made part of the Final Judgment to be presented to the Court for signature, filing and entry contemporaneously herewith.

3. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management waive the right, if any, to a jury trial and to appeal from the Final Judgment.

4. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management acknowledge that any violation of any of the terms of the Final Judgment may place them in contempt of this Court and subject them to civil or criminal sanctions.

5. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management acknowledge that they enter into this Consent voluntarily, and that, other than the acceptance of C. DeMizio's offer to consent to the entry of an administrative order pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, this Consent and the Final Judgment embody the entire understanding of themselves and the Commission. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management acknowledge and agree that this proceeding and their Consent to the entry of the Final Judgment are for the purposes of resolving this civil action only, and that no tender, offer, promise, threat or representation of any kind has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, attorney, agent or representative thereof with regard to: (a) any criminal liability arising from the facts underlying this action; or (b) immunity from any such criminal liability.

6. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management acknowledge that they have been informed and understand that the Commission, at its sole and exclusive discretion, may refer, or grant access to, this matter or any information or evidence gathered in connection therewith or derived therefrom, to any person or entity having appropriate administrative, civil, or criminal jurisdiction, if the Commission has not already done so.

7. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management acknowledge that, in conformity with the provisions of 17 C.F.C. § 202.5(f), their Consent and the entry of the annexed Final Judgment do not resolve, affect or preclude any other proceeding that has been or may be brought against them or anyone else. Among other things, defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management waive any right they may have to assert that, under the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the relief sought or consented to in this civil action, including the seeking or imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein, bars any criminal action, or that any criminal action bars the relief consented to in this action.

8. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management acknowledge that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding.

9. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management understand and agree to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegation in the Complaint or order for proceedings," 17 C.F.C. § 202.5(e). In compliance with this policy, defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management agree: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or creating the impression that the Complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management hereby withdraw any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the Complaint. If defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management breach this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this provision affects defendants C. DeMizio's and CD Management's: (a) testimonial obligations; or (b) right to take legal or factual positions in defense of litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

10. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management agree that this Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for purposes of implementing and enforcing the terms and conditions of the Final Judgment and for all other purposes.

11. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management hereby consent and agree that the annexed Final Judgment may be presented by the Commission to the Court for signature and entry without further notice or delay.

12. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waive any objection based thereon.

13. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management waive service of the Final Judgment and agree that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management of its terms and conditions. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management agree to execute and provide to the Commission a written declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 acknowledging their receipt of the Final Judgment no later than twenty (20) days after a copy of the Final Judgment has been delivered to their counsel, Jethro M. Eisenstein, Esq., 14 Wall Street, 22nd Floor, New York, New York 10005.

14. Defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management hereby waive any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to seek from the United States, or any agency, or any official of the United States acting in his or her official capacity, directly or indirectly, reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by defendants C. DeMizio and CD

Management to defend against this action. For these purposes, defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management agree that they are not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.

15. In connection with this action and any related judicial or administrative proceeding or investigation commenced by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party, defendants C. DeMizio and CD Management (i) agree to appear and be interviewed by Commission staff at such times and places as the staff requests upon reasonable notice; (ii) will accept service by mail or facsimile transmission of notices or subpoenas issued by the Commission for documents or testimony at depositions, hearings, or trials, or in connection with any related investigation by Commission staff; (iii) appoint their attorney, Jethro M. Eisenstein, Esq., as agent to receive service of such notices and subpoenas; (iv) with respect to such notices and subpoenas, waive the territorial limits on service contained in Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and any applicable local rules, provided that the party requesting the testimony reimburses defendants C. DeMizio's and CD Management's travel, lodging, and subsistence expenses at the then-prevailing U.S. Government per diem rates; and (v) consent to personal jurisdiction over them in any United States District Court for purposes of enforcing any such subpoena.
